Useful Organisations

Australian Society of Authors

The ASA is the professional association for Australia's authors and illustrators. We provide advocacy, support and advice for authors and illustrators in matters relating to their professional practice.

Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators

Our aim is to create a vibrant community of kids' book creators through meetings, conferences, online events and a monthly newsletter. We connect members with each other and industry professionals so we can develop our craft, learn about the world of publishing, secure publication and have a lot of fun.

Australian Copyright Council

The Australian Copyright Council is an independent, non-profit organisation. Founded in 1968, we represent the peak bodies for professional artists and content creators working in Australia's creative industries and Australia's major copyright collecting societies. <https://www.copyright.org.au/>

Arts Law Centre of Australia

Arts Law is Australia's independent national community legal centre for the arts. We provide free or low cost specialised legal advice, education and resources to Australian artists and arts organisations across all art forms, on a wide range of arts related legal and business matters. <https://www.artslaw.com.au/>

Australian Government Department of Communication and the Arts

We support inclusiveness and growth in Australia's creative sector, and we protect and promote Australian content and culture. We do this through delivering strategic advice and policy development, effective program and grants management, regulatory management and collaborative stakeholder engagement. <https://www.arts.gov.au/>
